
Job Description for Subject Teacher

Responsible to: Curriculum Lead

OVERALL PURPOSE OF THE POST

To secure high standards of learning and achievement for all students through the delivery of high quality teaching and the effective use of resources.

The conditions of employment of teachers are provided in the 'School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document', issued annually.

CORE DUTIES

Deliver Good Learning

- To plan and prepare courses and lessons so that teaching and learning has due regard to up-to-date knowledge of the subject and teaching methodology.
- To plan with reference to the schemes of work for each Key Stage.
- To teach students according to their educational needs, including the setting and marking of work.
- To keep methods of teaching and learning, and programmes of study, under regular review.
- To teach other subjects from time to time as may be required by timetable constraints, including covering for absent colleagues.
- To provide guidance and advice to students on educational and appropriate social matters and, as far as is practicable, on their further education and future careers. This is likely to include information about sources of more expert advice on specific questions and is partly, but not exclusively, related to the work that many teachers perform as form tutors.

Student Progress

- To provide and contribute to oral and written assessments, reports and references relating to individual students or groups of students. This will be in the context of helping to raise their standards of achievement, or for purposes of public examinations and assessments, and will be according to reasonable expectations established within the practices of the Academy.
- To assess, record and report on the development, progress and attainment of students, and to maintain accurate records of student attendance.
- To support and encourage all students to achieve the highest standards that they can. In some cases this encouragement will extend to independent learning and student involvement in extra activities beyond the classroom.

- To communicate and consult with parents and others outside the Academy when necessary (including appropriate meetings) according to the routines of the Academy.

Performance

- To participate in current arrangements for performance management.
- To identify personal development needs and seek ways of meeting them.
- To participate in arrangements for further training and professional development. This includes activities on Academy in-service training days or related to those days.
- To participate in induction arrangements where appropriate.

Team Working and Collaboration

- Work with team members and as a team member; identify opportunities for working with colleagues and sharing effective practice with them.
- Participate in school meetings and contribute to the use and development of appropriate specifications/syllabuses, schemes of work, assessment strategies and teaching and learning approaches.
- To advise and co-operate with the Head teacher and other staff on the preparation and development of courses, materials, teaching programmes, methods of teaching, assessment and 'deep support' arrangements.

Additional Duties

- Contribute to and participate in continuous professional development activities and whole staff meetings/CPD within the Academy and Trust wide.
- To maintain good order and discipline among the students, using the scope of the Academy Behaviour for Learning Policy and the expectations of conduct as specified by the Head teacher.
- To endeavour to create a safe and attractive environment for teaching and learning.
- To participate in the Academy's agreed pattern of meetings.
- To participate in arrangements for supervision during examinations where necessary.
- To contribute to a regular programme of supervisory duties assigned in an equitable way.
- To perform particular duties in accordance with directions given by the Head teacher, allocated from time to time on a reasonable basis.

All staff have a duty for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people. Staff must be aware of the Academy's procedures for raising concerns about students' welfare and must report any concern to the designated officers without delay. Staff must also ensure that they attend the appropriate level of safeguarding training identified as relevant to their role.

The post holder's duties must at all times be carried out in compliance with the Equality Opportunities Policies of the Academy, and the post holder must take reasonable care of the health and safety of self, other persons and resources whilst at work. This entails supporting our responsibilities under the Health and Safety Act.

All staff are expected to support the achievement of the Trust/Academy mission and strategic objectives and to demonstrate the values through their behaviour.
