Responsible to: Headteacher

Based at: Redscope Primary School

Paid on: MPS - UPS

OVERALL PURPOSE OF THE POST

To secure a high standard of learning and achievement for all students through the delivery of high-quality teaching and the effective use of resources.

Essential EYFS Knowledge and Skills

We are looking for a teacher who:

- Has a secure understanding of the Early Years Foundation Stage Framework and can use this to plan a rich, ambitious and developmentally appropriate curriculum.
- Demonstrates excellence in the teaching of systematic synthetic phonics, early reading, early writing and early mathematics, ensuring all children make strong progress from their starting points.
- Understands the importance of high-quality interactions and can skilfully extend children's language, communication and thinking through play and adult-led learning.
- Can create an enabling environment that promotes curiosity, independence, creativity and a love of learning.
- Uses ongoing observation and assessment effectively to identify next steps and tailor provision to meet the needs of all learners.
- Is committed to supporting children's personal, social and emotional development, helping every child feel safe, valued and confident.
- Has high expectations for behaviour, routines and learning habits, establishing strong foundations for future success.
- Can build positive and effective partnerships with parents and carers to support children's learning and development both in school and at home.
- Demonstrates a strong commitment to ensuring all children, including those with SEND and disadvantaged pupils, achieve their full potential.
- Understands the importance of school readiness and prepares children successfully for transition into Key Stage 1.

MAIN DUTIES

- To have high expectations of children and young people including a commitment to ensuring that they can achieve their full educational potential and to establishing fair, respectful, trusting, supportive and constructive relationships with them.

- To hold positive values and attitudes and adopt high standards of behaviour in their professional role.
- To maintain an up-to-date knowledge and understanding of the professional duties of teachers and the statutory framework within which they work, and contribute to the development, implementation and evaluation of the policies and practice of their workplace, including those designed to promote equality of opportunity.
- To communicate effectively with children, young people and colleagues.
- To communicate effectively with parents and carers, conveying timely and relevant information about attainment, objectives, progress and well-being.
- To recognise that communication is a two-way process and encourage parents and carers to participate in discussions about the progress, development and well-being of children and young people.
- To recognise and respect the contributions that colleagues, parents and carers can make to the development and well-being of children and young people, and to raising their levels of attainment.
- To have a commitment to collaboration and co-operative working where appropriate.

Personal Professional Development

- To evaluate their performance and be committed to improving their practice through appropriate professional development.
- To have a creative and constructively critical approach towards innovation; being prepared to adapt their practice where benefits and improvements are identified.
- To act upon advice and feedback and be open to coaching and mentoring.

Professional Knowledge and Understanding

Teaching and Learning

- To have a good, up-to-date working knowledge and understanding of a range of teaching, learning and behaviour management strategies and know how to use and adapt them, including how to personalise learning to provide opportunities for all learners to achieve their potential.

Assessment and Monitoring

- To know the assessment requirements and arrangements for the subjects / curriculum areas they teach, including those relating to public examinations and qualifications.
- To know a range of approaches to assessment, including the importance of formative assessment.
- To know how to use local and national statistical information to evaluate the effectiveness of their teaching, to monitor the progress of those they teach and to raise levels of attainment.
- To know how to use reports and other sources of external information related to assessment in order to provide learners with accurate and constructive feedback on their strengths, weaknesses, attainment, progress and areas for development, including action plans for improvement.

Subjects and Curriculum

- To have a secure knowledge and understanding of their subjects / curriculum areas and related pedagogy including: the contribution that their subjects/curriculum areas can make to cross-curricular learning; and recent relevant developments.
- To know and understand the relevant statutory and non-statutory curricula and frameworks, including those provided through the National Strategies, for their subjects / curriculum areas and other relevant initiatives across the age and ability range they teach.
- To know how to use skills in literacy, numeracy and ICT to support their teaching and wider professional activities.

- To understand how children and young people develop and how the progress, rate of development and well-being of learners are affected by a range of developmental, social, religious, ethnic, cultural and linguistic influences.
- To know how to make effective personalised provision for those they teach, including those for whom English is an additional language or who have special educational needs or disabilities, and how to take practical account of diversity and promote quality and inclusion in their teaching.
- To understand the roles of colleagues such as those having specific responsibilities for learners with special educational needs, disabilities and other individual learning needs, and the contributions they can make to the learning, development and well-being of children and young people.
- To know when to draw on the expertise of colleagues, such as those with responsibility for the safeguarding of children and young people and special educational needs and disabilities, and to refer to sources of information, advice and support from external agencies.
- To know the current legal requirements, national policies and guidance on the safeguarding and promotion of the well-being of children and young people.
- To know the local arrangements concerning the safeguarding of children and young people.
- To know how to identify potential child abuse or neglect and follow safeguarding procedures.
- To know how to identify and support children and young people whose progress, development or well-being is affected by changes or difficulties in their personal circumstances, and when to refer them to colleagues for specialist support.

Professional Skills

Planning

- To plan for progression across the age and ability range they teach, designing effective learning sequences within lessons and across series of lessons informed by secure subject/curriculum knowledge.
- To design opportunities for learners to develop their literacy, numeracy, ICT and thinking and learning skills appropriate within their phase and context.
- To plan, set and assess homework, other out-of-class assignments and coursework for examinations, where appropriate, to sustain learners' progress and to extend and consolidate their learning.

Teaching

- Teach challenging, well-organised lessons and sequences of lessons across the age and ability range they teach in which they:
- Use an appropriate range of teaching strategies and resources, including e-learning, which meet learners' needs and take practical account of diversity and promote equality and inclusion.
- Build on the prior knowledge and attainment of those they teach in order that learners meet learning objectives and make sustained progress.
- Develop concepts and processes which enable learners to apply new knowledge, understanding and skills.
- Adapt their language to suit the learners they teach, introducing new ideas and concepts clearly, and using explanations, questions, discussions and plenaries effectively.
- Manage the learning of individuals, groups and whole classes effectively, modifying their teaching appropriately to suit the stage of the lesson and the needs of the learners.

Other

- To observe at all times confidentiality appropriate to the post and to work within Trust guidelines of Data Protection.
- Perform other duties as assigned by your line manager.
